

For Immediate Release

The New York Women's Foundation and Their Grantee Partners Star on October 28 Episode of NBC's "GIVE"

New York (October 27, 2017) – On the October 28 episode of "Give," NBC's reality show highlighting the work of small charities making a big impact and its first episode to highlight women's philanthropy, celebrity ambassador and Food Network personality Sunny Anderson visits two New York charities building expansive futures for girls and women. Along the way, she learns about grantmaking from Ana Oliveira, President and CEO of The New York Women's Foundation and helps decide how to distribute $50,000 from The Foundation between the two organizations.

The pair, The Brotherhood/Sister Sol of Harlem and Center for Family Life in Sunset Park, were selected by The New York Women's Foundation for their innovative programs and exceptional work as anchors of the community and agents-of-change. Each provides opportunities for girls and women to pursue self-reliance and economic security through a range of educational programming, cultural enrichment and other support services.

Tune in at noon on Saturday, October 28 on NBC New York – Channel 4, as well as NBC stations around the nation to see the episode or here to view it on demand.

About The New York Women's Foundation

The New York Women's Foundation creates an equitable and just future for women and families by uniting a cross-cultural alliance that ignites action and invests in bold, community-led solutions across the city.

###

Contact:

Nancy Guida, 646-564-5988 or nguida@nywf.org

Ilyse Fink or Barbara Dimajo, 212-575-4545 or ifink@lakpr.com / bdimajo@lakpr.com

###