IMPACT THROUGH LEGACY GIVING
The New York Women’s Foundation creates an equitable and just future for women by uniting a cross-cultural alliance that ignites action and invests in bold, community-led solutions across the city.

By making a planned gift to The Foundation, you have the power to leave a meaningful philanthropic legacy that goes beyond your lifetime and amplifies your impact. With a legacy gift, you may also have the capacity to give at a level not possible during your lifetime.

By including The New York Women’s Foundation in your estate planning, you will make a powerful statement that investing in women and girls is important and ensure that we have the resources needed to advance and accelerate community-led solutions that empower women, trans, and gender non-conforming (TGNC) communities.

MANY WAYS TO GIVE
Create Your Legacy

Carefully structured legacy gifts – which can be made during your lifetime or as part of your estate planning – provide vital support to The New York Women’s Foundation while delivering substantial financial and tax benefits to you or your heirs. The following options are the simplest ways to give:

- Make a bequest to The Foundation in your will. You maintain control over all assets and, if needed, can modify.

- Name The Foundation as a revocable beneficiary of a life insurance policy, IRA, or other retirement plans that will pay benefits contractually to The Foundation.

- Establish a charitable gift annuity, which will provide a lifetime income stream and substantial tax benefits.

Outright gifts of cash, more complex gifts of charitable remainder or lead trusts, and gifts involving real estate are additional options. The Foundation’s Development staff can explain the advantages and work with your attorney or financial advisor to create a gift that meets your objectives.

The inspirational legacy of Polly W. Guth, a founding member of The New York Women’s Foundation, exemplifies the importance of establishing a legacy to The Foundation’s future. Guth’s thoughtful and strategic financial investments helped The Foundation grow from a fledgling grantmaker to a thriving philanthropic institution that will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2022.

The Polly W. Guth Legacy Society welcomes members who have made a legacy gift to The New York Women’s Foundation. In appreciation for their philanthropic support, members are celebrated at an annual luncheon, and receive priority invitations to special events and philanthropy seminars.
